Keynote Speaker TORI WALKER

Tori came to Christ when she was fifteen. She testifies that God has faithfully sustained her, grown her and generously provided for her.

Tori studied and worked as an accountant when she left school, and then had the enormous privilege of doing MTS (Ministry Training Strategy) at the University of NSW.

She then headed off to Moore College as a single woman, where she met her husband Dave. Tori and her husband now have 4 sons, 2 in primary and 2 in high school. She also hosts a podcast and runs a small business. She loves chatting, going to the beach and teaching the Bible.
