CWCI (Christian Women
Communicating

International Inc) is a worldwide Bible-based ministry which began in Australia in 1957 with a small group of women who went away for a weekend of Bible teaching.

Local CWCI events held in cities and country areas offer encouragement, inspiration and Bible teaching.

Know Your Bible studies are used regularly by women in over 2300 KYB groups in Australia. Studies are also available in more than 45 different languages and are used in over 70 countries around the world.

CWCI Safaris travel into remote areas of Australia with Christ's love and teaching.

Joyce Bengtson

Joyce enjoys studying God's Word and supports her husband who is the honorary lay pastor of their local church, which began as a church plant under their house, but which now has its own premises. They also have a beef cattle property.

Joyce is on the church ministry team and plays keyboard in the church band. She also leads two KYB groups. She says: "I have not had any special training in God's Word but am willing to do my best and let God do the rest. I respond well to given themes."

She and her husband Garnet have 4 adult children and 10 grandchildren. One of their daughters is involved in a church plant in Oxford, England and one son is a pastor of a church in Adelaide.

Joyce enjoys travel, fossicking, fishing, mosaics and oil painting.
