

Growing Women in Christ through sharing the Bible

“The Conductor”

A drama production by
Naomi Reed

CWCI (Christian Women Communicating International Inc) is a worldwide Bible-based faith ministry which began in Australia in 1957 with a small group of women who went away for a weekend of Bible teaching.

- Local CWCI events held in cities and country areas offer encouragement, inspiration and Bible teaching.
- Know Your Bible studies are used regularly by women throughout Australia. Some studies are also available in other languages and are used throughout the world.
- CWCI Safaris travel into rural and remote areas of Australia with Christ's love and teaching.

Naomi Reed grew up in Sydney on a quarter acre block with a large assortment of pets and no television. She became a Christian at high school through the ministry of ISCF and met her future husband Darren at a high school disco. They trained together as physiotherapists at Sydney Uni and then married and worked in Sydney hospitals before answering God's call to the mission field in 1993. They spent six of the next thirteen years working in Nepal with the International Nepal Fellowship and it changed them irrevocably. They have three sons. The family is now based in the Blue Mountains where Naomi is writing, speaking and studying for her Master of Arts in Christian Studies (MACS) at SMBC. She is the author of eight books including, 'My Seventh Monsoon', 'No Ordinary View', 'Over My Shoulder' and 'The Promise'.

Naomi is a gifted communicator who loves to use honest, everyday stories to remind us that even in the hardest moments, God has not forgotten us.

Decorative floral graphics in purple and gold, including a five-petaled flower, a stylized leaf with berries, and a spiral design.
